

Instructions - how to join

Where were you born? (County or Country)

119 responses

How did you travel to the conference?

What is your preferred colour of tea?

National Volunteer Management Conference

All ready to go?

Great, we'll have questions for you during Nina's presentation

For now enjoy the presentation.

Has recruiting and retaining enough volunteers for your organisation's needs become:

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Recognition

Funding!

Building skills

Funding

Networking

Vetting portability between organisations

Funding

Volunteer recognition

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Continuing to connect national and international volunteering

A how-to guide

Funding/ grants

Strict focus on engaging people from poorer backgrounds & communities with volunteering

recognition

Less regulation i.e. CRA for small organisations.

Greater acknowledge and incentivisation for volunteers

Funding

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Communications

Volunteer recognition

Recognition

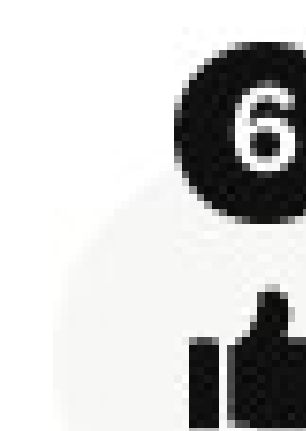

More funding or grants

Modern trends to Retain volunteer

Funding

Funding

Training / Capacity Building

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Proper recognition

Networking

Public awareness of Ivol

Accreditation framework for youth leaders, like YWIC up north

Communication

Support for informal volunteering

Funding

Recognition

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Telling our story

Incentives

Training for volunteers

Recognition

Grant's and funding to help develop volunteers in their roles

Coordination

Funding

Continued funding for volunteer centres

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Funding and grants for innovative projects

Volunteer recognition

Capacity Building

Streamline Garda Vetting

Recognition in tax incentives for volunteers

Confirmed multi annual funding for vcs

Recognition

Budgets

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Recognition

More financial support for volunteering organisations that are small

Funding

Acknowledgment of the impact of volunteers &
volunteer managers

Volunteer retention

Funding

Engagement with the Volunteer Centre delivering the strategy on the ground.

Recognition

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Innovation

Recognition

Recognition funding

Continued funding for VCs

Recognise that volunteering is (and can be) political and radical

Support for volunteers from a background of displacement

Funding

Inclusion of people with an intellectual disability as volunteers - measures to support this and promote this

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Inclusivity

Funding

Recognition

Resources for supporting and recognising volunteers

Volunteers getting recognition nationally for the work they do along with funding

Support

Recognition

Funding for infrastructure

2

6

109

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Recognition

Diversify the volunteer base

funding.

Proactive recruiting and support for the volunteer

Training framework

Core funding grant opportunities to support well invested and supported volunteer programmes which support positive outcomes for volunteers as well as programs

Recognising the profession

Recognition funding

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

More involvement and support for minority groups

A requirement for companies of a certain size to comply/send volunteers, take part to a certain level

Public awareness

Recognition

Funding

Funding

Guaranteed funding to volunteers involving organisation. Accreditation for Vol managers

Quality standards for volunteer management

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Funding

Opportunity for people with disabilities / Accessibility

Training

Diversity

Concrete actions and resources for it esp in youth Voices and needs of up rather than needs down

Funding for volunteer training Proper
recognition

Inclusion

Volunteer recognition.

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Funding Accreditations Recognition beyond single awards

Impact

Impact

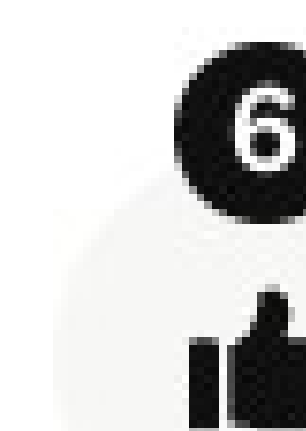

More funding

National Support

Volunteer Centre investment

Funding for volunteer centres

Training

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Funding

Recruitment Support

Further development of local volunteer resources and training and capacity building through volunteer centre network

Work to give staff time off work to volunteer

Guides

Joint up thinking

Recognition of volunteering and its importance Funding for retention of volunteers

Digital cohesion cross platform across agencies

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Platform to link with overseas volunteers with similar projects/activities

Funding

Infrastructure
standardisation

Regional coordination

Protection for DEI

Volunteering recognition

Disability Inclusive

Recognising and support

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Recognition funding

Accessibility

Funding,
education/training,
garda vetting requirements

Showcasing the importance and impact volunteering for society, community and individual

Volunteer recognition, and accreditation

Training

Recognition Respect and diversity Funding

Funding, supports and awards

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Training

Streamline Garda
vetting

Findin Accreditation

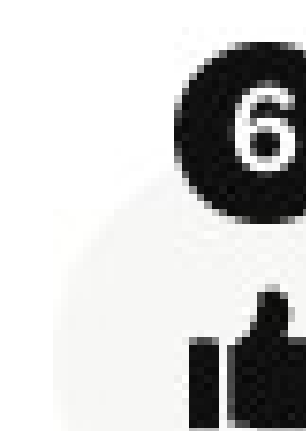

Streamlining Procedures

Inclusion and diversity

Regional coordination

Promotion of benefits of volunteering

New website

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Funding for training
Recognition

learnings shared

Garda Vetting to apply for all volunteer roles, not one application per role

Funding to employ
volunteer managers

Financial support and accreditation/recognition of the value to communities

Volunteering opportunities

A decision on what the CVP is exactly. We were not called upon during the extreme need for volunteers at the recent Storm Owyen. What's the purpose if we train people for these situations and not used

Recognition

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Streamline garda vetting

Multi annual funding

Supporting Volunteer Managers to embrace best practice through capacity building & training in new trends.

Support for VCs and a structured approach across all

More funding for Volunteer Centre

Continued funding for VOlunteer Centres

Support for o volunteer only organisations

Funding support for volunteering

What is the single most important thing you want to see in the new National Volunteering Strategy?

Make it easier to recruit volunteers working with young people.
Safeguarding requirements are problematic

Community Volunteers

To be taken seriously by other bodies such as county councils

To be taken seriously by the county council

